MANAGERS REPORT

Looks like we will be adding a couple new homes to Harbor Lights in the near future. Lot #89 and Lot #54. More to come on this.

Update on seawall is that we are waiting on the company that contracted the camera work to file a report. We have one report in so far. After we receive both reports the next step will be to set up a meeting with the engineers to determine future work needed.

A reminder when people are leaving please do not leave any buckets or anything else that will hold water out. This will help to keep our mosquito population in better control. We don't want the zika virus around.

On the sealcoat issue we applied a thicker spray coat in front of the office to monitor. The vendor will come down to meet with us soon for next steps. Pet registrations are coming in. This is a reminder that all pets must be registered. Please drop off when completed.

We want to thank everyone who consented on the retrofit. This was a great response.

With the season coming up any owners that are considering renting their units must abide by the new rules. A copy of the rules & regulations was sent out to all. Applications and background checks must be performed. Consult the office if you have any questions.

Hurricane packets are still available at the office for pickup. The season is through October.

Hope everyone is enjoying their summer.

Learning To Cuss

A 6 year old and a 4 year old are raking the yard.

The 6 year old asks, "You know what? I think it's about time we started learning to cuss."

The 4 year old nods his head in approval.

The 6 year old continues, "When we go in for breakfast, I'm gonna say something with hell and you say something with ass."

The 4 year old agrees with enthusiasm.

When the mother walks into the kitchen and asks the 6 year old what he wants for breakfast, he replies, "Aw, hell, Mom, I guess I'll have some Cheerios."

WHACK! He flies out of his chair, tumbles across the kitchen floor, gets up, and runs upstairs crying his eyes out, with his mother in hot pursuit, slapping his rear with every step. His mom locks him in his room and shouts, "You can stay there until I let you out!" She then comes back downstairs, looks at the 4 year old and asks with a stern voice, "And what do YOU want for breakfast, young man?"

"I don't know," he blubbers, "but you can bet your fat ass it won't be Cheerios!"
